

Read the following article and fill in the blanks with one of the words below

Using 2 different colors, decide what category each word belongs to : verb noun

buildings	centred	collapsed	damage	depth	evacuated	fear
felt	injured	islands	quake	shook	struck	windows

Strong earthquake hits Martinique

A strong earthquake measuring 7.4 magnitude has hit near the island of Martinique in the eastern Caribbean, the US Geological Survey has said.

The quake's epicentre was 40km from Fort-de-France, Martinique

The earthquake _____¹ at 1500 (1900 GMT) off the north-west coast of Martinique at a _____² of 145.4 kilometres (90.4 miles).

Two people were _____³, official Lorne Martin told Radio Martinique.

There have been unconfirmed reports that some _____⁴ have collapsed in Martinique's capital, Fort-de-France.

The earthquake was _____⁵ 40km (25 miles) north-west of Fort-de-France, the US Geological Survey (USGS) said.

'Everything shook'

"For the moment, a building and a bank have _____⁶ a police source in Fort-de-France told the French news agency AFP.

Callers to Radio Martinique described their _____⁷ as the quake struck.

"My house _____⁸ so hard I thought it was going to fall. The door, _____⁹, everything shook," the Associated Press reported one caller as saying.

"I wouldn't expect major _____¹⁰ because the quake has some depth," Don Blakeman, a geophysicist at the National Earthquake Information Center in Golden, Colorado told AP.

There were also reports that the _____¹¹ of Guadeloupe and Dominica had felt the quake strongly.

Residents on islands further across the eastern Caribbean - as far away as Puerto Rico to the north and Trinidad and Tobago to the south - told the USGS that they had felt the _____¹².

Witness accounts

The tremor was also _____¹³ hundreds of miles away in South America.

In the Venezuelan capital, Caracas, 500 miles (800km) from the epicentre, some people _____¹⁴ office buildings, Reuters news agency reported.