

London Underground - Worksheet B

1- Ask each other appropriate questions so as to fill in the table below

Name	Map colour	First operated	Type	Length (km)	Stations	Journeys per year
Bakerloo line	Brown	1906	Deep level	23.2	25
	Red		Deep level			199,000
Circle line	Yellow	1884	Subsurface	22.5	27
	Green		Subsurface			188,000
Hammersmith & City line	Pink	1863	Subsurface	26.5	29
Jubilee line	Silver		Deep level			127,584
Metropolitan line	Magenta	1863	Subsurface	66.7	34
Northern line	Black		Deep level			206,987
	Dark Blue	1906	Deep level	71	53
	Light Blue		Deep level			174,000
Waterloo & City line	Turquoise	1898	Deep level	2.5	2

2- Write a presentation of the most frequented line

3- write a presentation of the line with the highest number of stations

4- Fill in the blanks with the verb in the correct form/tense

The London Underground (begin)..... its operation in 1863. It (serve)270 stations and (have)..... 11 lines. Every day almost 3 million people (use)..... "the tube" to (travel).....

It (be)..... the world's oldest underground railway, serving Greater London as well as parts of Essex, Hertfordshire and Buckinghamshire. Until 1985 the London Underground (belong)..... to many companies. In 1985, these companies (be)..... grouped together to form "London Underground Limited." The Underground (have)..... more than 250 miles of tracks. It (be)..... the longest metro system in the world. The first Underground stations (be)..... London Bridge, Euston, Paddington, King's Cross, Bishopsgate and Waterloo. The nickname "the tube" (come)..... from the round tunnels in the Underground.