

| Name : Fo  | orm :    | Date :          |  |
|--|----------|-----------------|--|
| Group:   |          |                 |  |
| Content: Writing a tale  | My group | The other group |  |
| We/They have written the tale for an audience                    |          |                 |  |
| Before writing our first draft:                                  |          |                 |  |
| • We/They have chosen the characters                             |          |                 |  |
| • We/They have listed and selected ideas                         |          |                 |  |
| • We/They have mobilised the vocabulary                          |          |                 |  |
| We/They have paid attention to the logical structure of our tale |          |                 |  |
| • We/They have set the expository scene                          |          |                 |  |
| • We/They have developed the story                               |          |                 |  |
| • We/They have used linking words                                |          |                 |  |
| We/They have paid attention to the grammar (tenses)              |          |                 |  |
| We/They have paid attention to the lexical field                 |          |                 |  |